Dr. Lasker, Chess Champion, Will Visit America Shortly

VIENNA, January 30.—Dr. Emanuel Lasker, chess champion of the world, has decided to visit America at the conclusion of his match for the championship with Carl Schlechter of Vienna, now in progress in this city, the first game of which was drawn after a session lasting nine hours. The champion paid a hurried trip to the United States early last summer, sailing in June. Since then he has met and defeated D. Janowski of Paris, in a rather one-sided match, and prepared the book of the international chess congress at St. Petersburg for publication. His stay in America will be longer on this occasion, as it is his intention to tour the United States and Canada and meet all the chess experts of both countries.
